Italian desing and technology

FERRARI, MASERATI, PRADA, VALENTINO, ARMANI, GUCCI, DOLCE&GABBANA, FERRAGAMO, FERRETTI YACHTS

Italian design is synonymous worldwide with the perfect symbiosis between form and function, of an effective and harmonic integration between techno-functional aspects and aesthetic-formal quality. An ideal relationship which establishes itself when the aesthetic choices are a consequence of function and vice versa, without effort.

With our design process, we develop both these aspects, in parallel, in such a manner that they remain completely integrated with the final product at the functional, aesthetic, material and technological level.

Valiamo in the world

VALIAMO recognizes the global challenges societies around the world are facing, and takes a dual approach – social and ecological – to the way we operate and innovate as a company.

At VALIAMO, we fully embrace sustainability, because of its benefits for society and because we believe that it is a driver for innovation and economic growth. That's why sustainable development is an integral part of our company strategy.
